Flows the blood of Oda in the night
On the battlefield of startup dreams

Cutting through the digital unknown

Changing the system, changing the world's direction Code Samurai, a mission in my veins Creating the future, breaking all the chains

In front of venture capital eyes Pitch decks sharpened like strategies rise
A fire born four hundred years ago
Still burns inside, still starts to glow

From Honnoji to Silicon Valley

Every failure, every scar I've known Becomes the strength that leads me on

From the ashes I rise again
Like a phoenix in the wind

Phoenix Rising, my soul's on fire Turning my pain into wings to fly higher Phoenix Rising, unbreakable heart Soaring to a brand new sky, a brand new start

Like the battle of Ueda stands Even outnumbered, I make my stand Adversity awakens power inside That's the truth I will never deny

With the six coins shining on my chest
I will fight until my final breath
This is the path I choose to live Sanada's spirit, the strength I give yield we're living in score cease

With the patience that built Edo's reign
I overcome every trial and pain
This is the way that I lead and stand past to the future.

Etched through generations, our pride
and our spirit
Legacy Code, a mission in our veins Moving toward the future, where Bushido remains

heal
From teachers to ronin who still chase what's real

Etched through generations, our pride
and our spirit

Moving toward the future, where Bushido
remains

Carry the spirit within you all Live through the present, rise and go With the legacy you've come to know
